Dear Fellow Missionaries:

It is our glorious privilege to partake in the fulfillment of a prophecy uttered by Lehi, the great progenitor of the indigenous people of the Americas, and explained by Nephi:

"Behold, I say unto you, that the house of Israel was compared unto an olive-tree, by the Spirit of the Lord which was in our fathers; and behold are we not broken off from the house of Israel, and are we not a branch of the house of Israel?"

And now, the thing which our father meaneth concerning the grafting in of the natural branches through the fulness of the Gentiles, is, that in the latter days, when our seed shall have dwindled in unbelief, yea, for the space of many years, and many generations after the Messiah shall be manifested in body unto the children of men, then shall the fulness of the gospel of the Messiah come unto the Gentiles, and from the Gentiles unto the remnant of our seed---

And at that day shall the remnant of our seed know that they are of the house of Israel, and that they are the covenant people of the Lord; and then shall they know and come to the knowledge of their forefathers, and also to the knowledge of the gospel of their Redeemer, which was ministered unto their fathers by him; wherefore, they shall come to the knowledge of their Redeemer and the very points of his doctrine, that they may know how to come unto him and be saved.

And then at that day will they not rejoice and give praise unto their everlasting God, their rock and their salvation? Yea, at that day, will they not receive the strength and nourishment from the true vine? Yea, will they not come unto the true fold of God?

Behold, I say unto you, Yea; they shall be remembered again among the house of Israel; they shall be grafted in, being a natural branch of the olive-tree, into the true olive-tree."

The "Day of the Lamanite" is at hand, and perhaps more than ever before in the history of the Church, people are seeking the truth. May we be the most worthy instruments in the hands of the Lord in furthering this great work.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

President David G. Clark
Sister Bonnie Clark

Dear Fellow Missionaries:

What constitutes a successful person? Or for that matter, what constitutes a successful missionary? This is a problem which philosophers and other great men have studied from the beginning of time, and most of them have, today, come to the conclusion that 85% of success is preparation.

What an important role preparation plays in the life of every successful man! For example, the Savior spent thirty years of his life preparing himself for the three year mission which he was to perform and which reached it's successful culmination in the opening of the way for man to receive eternal life and exaltation at the side of his Creator. Then following his resurrection, the Lord returned and charged each one of us with the responsibility of carrying the gospel message to all the peoples of the earth. Thus we each have the promise that we too may become "Saviors upon Mount Zion" and through our success, Christ becomes more successful. That is quite a responsibility. Are you prepared?

Preparation is not something that a young man does before receiving his call to the mission field, nor is it something achieved during his first few months of labor. Preparation is a continual process. The whole purpose of our existence is improvement and the only road to improvement is preparation. Someone once said, "When we stop getting better, we stop being good", mainly because, "You can lead a running stream but what can you do with a stagnant pool?"

May we always remember the motto which most of us learned early in life: "BE PREPARED", and constantly strive to improve ourselves through constant study and prayer which are the best ways to avoid the "stagnant" condition which renders us useless in the hands of the Master.

Elder Ronald M. Farley

Dear Fellow Missionaries:

"Corporations pay thousands of dollars annually to efficiency consultants. These men are paid to go through a business operation, department by department, to observe, make time-and-motion studies, and give suggestions on how time and money might be saved. In a manufacturing plant they will use stop watches to time each movement of a worker. They will measure and time the cycle that each worker goes through in order to perform his part of the operation. A like process will also occur in the offices -- the time to type a letter -- distance from the stenographer's desk to the mail slot -- all of these things are measured and compared."

Just a few minutes a day can save a missionary hours. It can be done in the evening or early in the morning. First, a review of the previous day's activities must be discussed in order to determine if the goals of the day were accomplished. Then secondly, a schedule for the day's activities should be drawn up. Write the schedule on the organization sheets to have the day's activities in front of you.

As it has been stated, organization is the key to effectiveness. In order to show forth our potential we must be creative. In order to create or make something it has to be done in an organized manner. We all want to be the best missionaries, but in order to be the best we have to work effectively, to work effectively we have to be organized.

Let us be organized and may we attain our goals I pray.

Elder Don M. Christiansen

ZONE COMPETITION

It has been felt on the part of the Mission Presidency and the Zone Leaders that all of the missionaries in the field of labor would enjoy a stimulus program. We have met as a body and decided upon certain ground rules. Thus, the following, Zone Competition.

1. All convert baptisms: Father, mother, and all available children when united as members of the Church are considered a family.

Point Structure	Men	4 points
	Women	2 points
	Children	1 point
	Completed family	3 point bonus

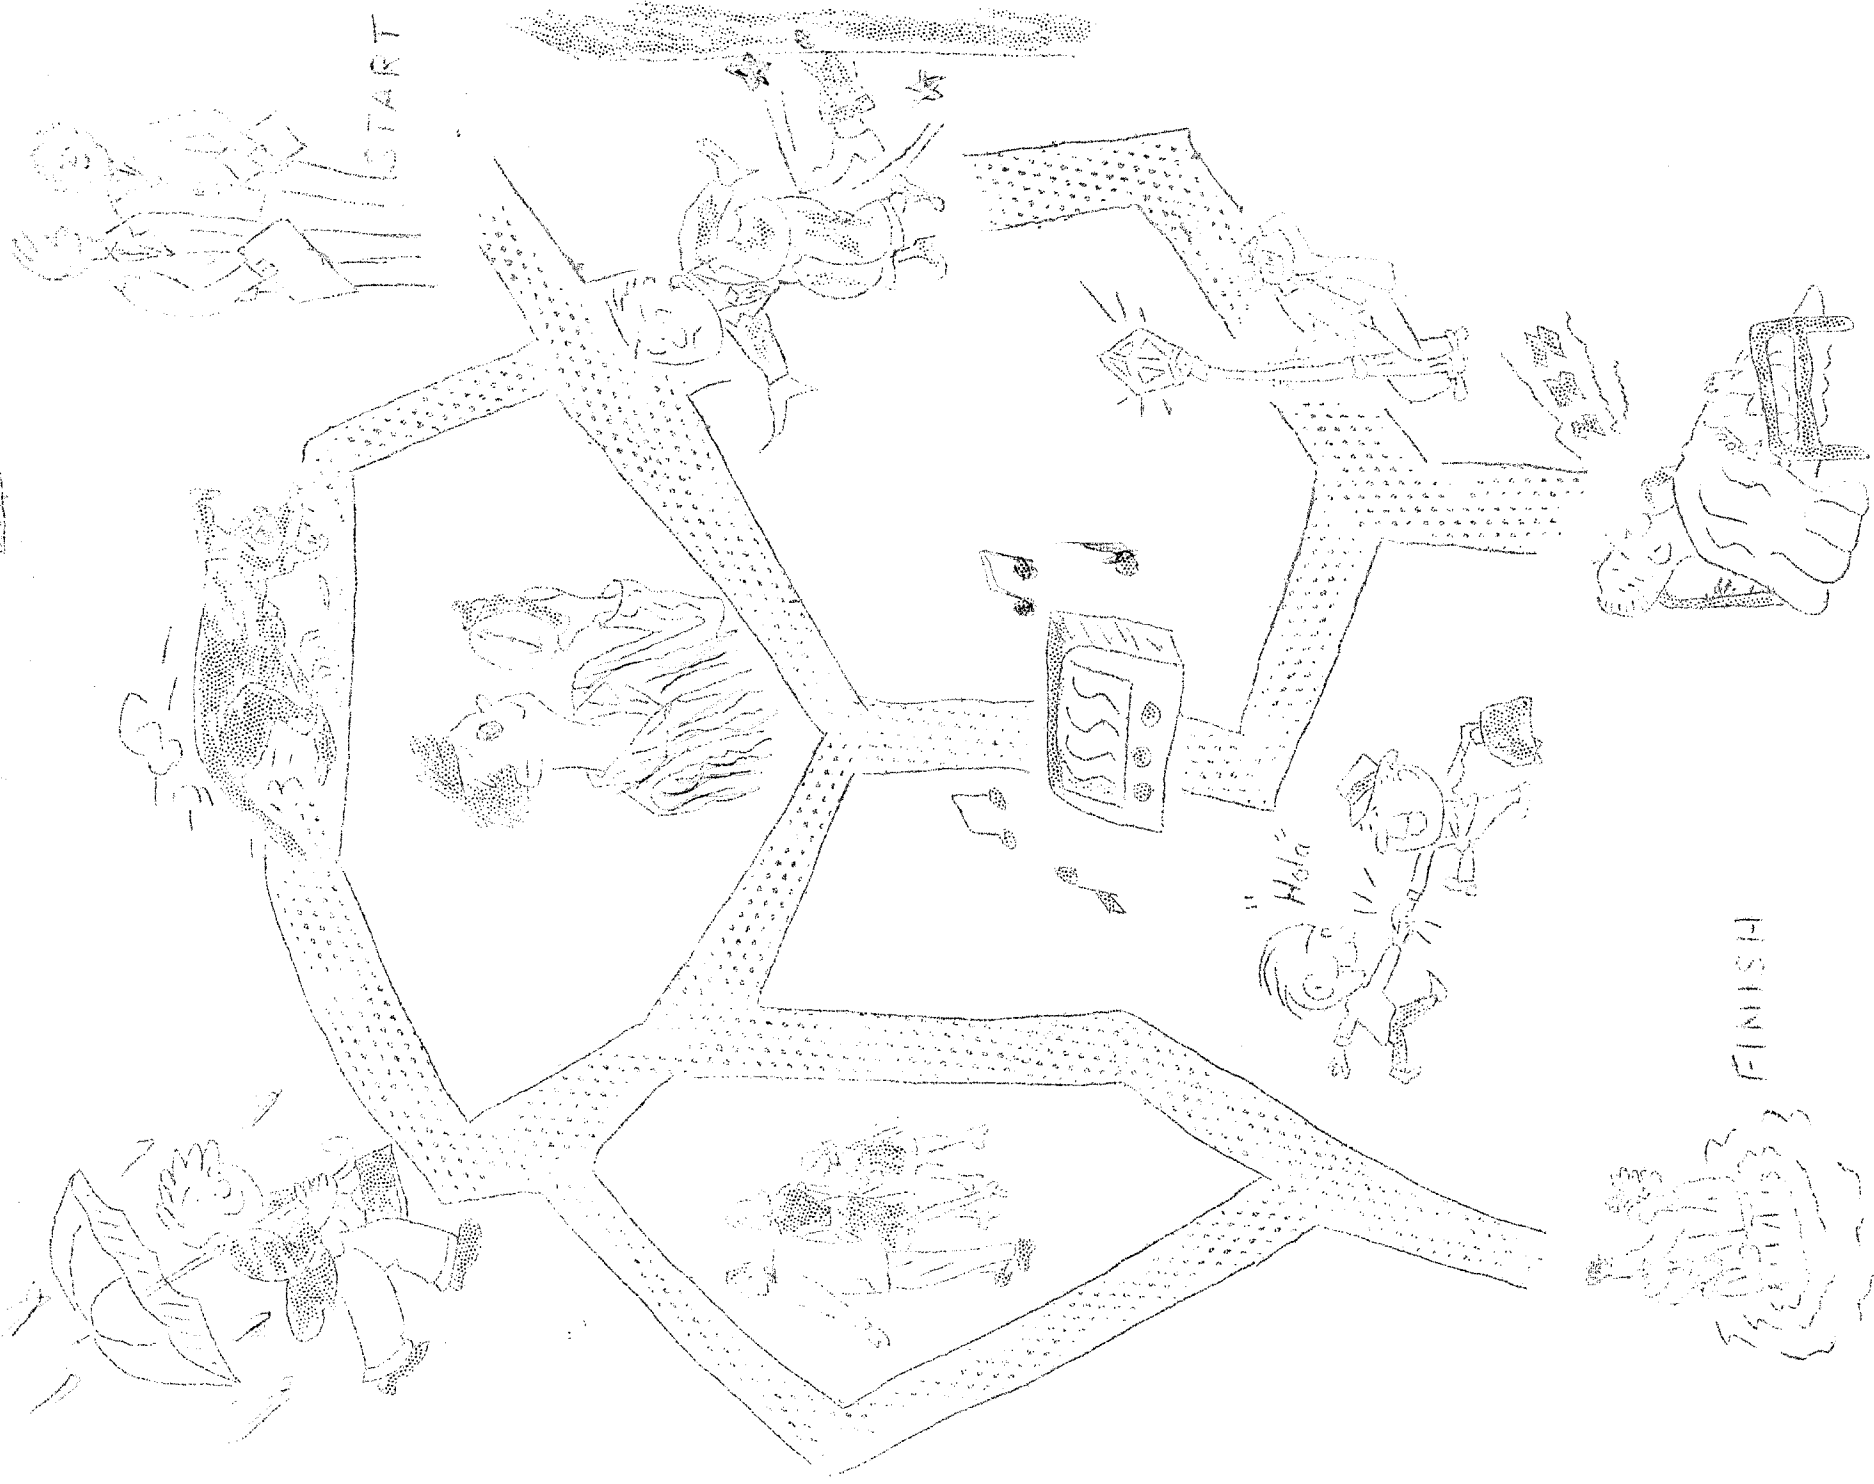

Winners of the contest are determined on a point structure basis.

2. All eight year old baptisms are considered as one point only.
3. Adults are those 18 years old and over and those who are under 18 years of age and married. These are considered eligible in the point structure of 4 points for men and 2 points for women.
4. All children 9 years old and over who were not baptized when the other members of the family were baptized, but were baptized at a later date will be counted as completing a family and will receive a bonus of 3 points.
5. If any of the children of a family are married then the married children and the parents are counted as different families.
6. If the mother or father is dead or divorced then those remaining are counted as a family. If there is a guardian then the guardian is counted as part of the family.
7. Those living away from home (in school, in the service, etc.) and return after the family is baptized are counted as completing a family.

Duration Dates:

September 1 to October 1
October 2 to October 29
November 1 to December 3

A vertical strip of ten hand-drawn, textured geometric shapes. THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

Shortly after a couple had moved to a small New England town, the lady of the house complained to her neighbor about the poor service at the local library, hoping that the woman would repeat her complaint to the librarian.

The next time the woman went to the library, she found that the librarian had set aside two best sellers for her and a new biography for her husband. What is more, the librarian seemed genuinely glad to see her.

The new comer told this to her friend saying, "I suppose you told the librarian how poor I thought the service was."

"No," was the reply, "I hope you don't mind but I told her that your husband was amazed at how well she had built up a small town library and that you thought she showed wonderful taste in the books she selected."

Conscience is the still small voice that makes us feel still smaller.

The amount of sleep required by individuals varies . . . except that each person needs just five minutes more.

Many a small boy is the kind of kid his mother tells him not to play with.

The nicest thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time.

It is no great thing to be humble when you are brought low, but to be humble when you are praised is a great and rare attainment.

As the soil, however rich it may be, cannot be productive without culture, so the mind without cultivation can never produce good fruit. --Seneca

PAYMENT OF MEDICAL EXPENSES

When a missionary contracts an illness that requires hospitalization, he should notify at once either the Second Assistant or the Zone Leader. The Zone Leader will in turn notify the Second Assistant of the nature of the illness, the time required for recuperation, and that the missionary has notified his parents of his illness and entrance into the hospital.

Since the billing system is different here than in the United States, the missionary should instruct the hospital that he, personally, must sign, after a complete and satisfactory explanation, all charges. This will give the Mission a control over indiscreet charging. He should then direct the hospital to send these charges to the Mission Office. The Mission Office will then pay all costs. At the time of payment, the missionary will be charged $10.00 for the doctor's bills and $30.00 for the hospital bills.

As soon as possible the missionary should institute action to recover as much of the total expenditure as possible from his insurance company. The canceled billings will be available to the missionary for insurance purposes. Since the Mission will have paid the hospital and doctor bills, please specify to the insurance company that the "Misión Guatemalteco - Salvadoreña" be the payee.
